GOVERNMENT OF THE
CENTRAL PROVINCES AND BERAR
POLICE DEPARTMENT

Nagpur, the 17th November 1938.

READ—

Report on the Police Administration of the Central Provinces and Berar for the year 1937.

RESOLUTION

The year was not an easy one for the police. The railway and mill strikes in the early part of the year, the elections to the Provincial Legislative Assembly in February and the deterioration in the relations between the two major communities in the several districts culminating in a serious riot at Jubbulpore during Dasehra taxed the resources of the force to a considerable extent. Fortunately, the number of offences registered fell from 46,881 to 45,389. This was due largely to the decrease of house-breakings in Berar by 784, which is attributed to the improvement in economic conditions. The percentage of convictions to investigations into house-breaking cases was 18.6 [19.3]. The decline, though slight, is disappointing, and Government hopes that attention will continue to be concentrated on the control and detection of house-breaking which the Inspector-General of Police rightly regards as our most serious problem. In this connection, Government desires to reiterate the desirability of adoption as far as possible in other large cities and towns of the Province the methods followed by Rai Bahadur Tarachand in dealing with house-breakings in Nagpur, which again yielded excellent results.

2. Judicious use was made of sections 109 and 110 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. The efficacy of action under these sections in the prevention of crime hardly needs emphasis, and in districts like Bilaspur, in which the number of offences against property has risen, the question of more extended resort to these sections appears to call for urgent examination. In some districts, the number of proceedings under section 107 of the Code of Criminal Procedure was unduly large, and Government agrees with the Inspector-General of Police that greater discrimination in the use of the section is required.

3. Relations between the police and the public were generally good. The question of setting these relations upon a basis of complete understanding and sympathy engaged the attention of Government shortly after the close of the year, and a letter on the subject was issued in July 1938. Government is fully confident that the Inspector-General of Police will take all possible steps to implement the wishes of Government in this vital matter.

4. During the year Rs. 1,67,000 were spent on new and incomplete major works. Government is fully aware of the need for modern and adequate accommodation for the police, but the provision of funds is necessarily limited by the financial position of the Province.

5. The number of motor accidents compared to the number of vehicles plying in the Province is still distressingly large. It is to be hoped that the enforcement in the near future of the new Motor Vehicles Act and the Central Provinces and Berar Highways Act, combined with educative propaganda for the inculcation of better road manners and road sense among all classes of road users, which Government have under contemplation, will help to reduce the toll of the road.

6. The thanks of Government are due to Sir Charles Chitham and Mr. D. A. Smyth for yet another year's successful administration of the department.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of the resolution be submitted to the Government of India, Home Department, and a copy be forwarded to the Registrar, High Court of Judicature at Nagpur, for the information of the Hon'ble the Chief Justice, and to the Inspector-General of Police, Central Provinces and Berar, for information and guidance; also that it be published in Part I of the Central Provinces and Berar Gazette.

Central Provinces & Berar,

FROM

D. A. SMYTH, ESQ., C.B.E.,

INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF POLICE,

CENTRAL PROVINCES AND BERAR,

To

THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

POLICE DEPARTMENT,

CENTRAL PROVINCES AND BERAR.

Nagpur, the 29th June, 1938.

SIR,

I have the honour to submit the Report on the Police Administration of this province for the year 1937, together with the prescribed statements.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient servant,

D. A. SMYTH,

Inspector-General of Police,
Central Provinces and Berar.

[NOTE.—Figures in brackets are those of 1936.]

PART I.—GENERAL

Economic conditions improved in Berar and house-breakings in this division decreased by 784 cases. This accounts for practically the whole decrease of house-breakings registered during the year. In the remainder of the province depression continued and there was no appreciable effect on crime.

2. Labour.—A strike on the Bengal-Nagpur Railway lasted for three months and a lock-out in the Model Mills, Nagpur, for two months. The Pulgaon Mills remained closed throughout the year and the Badnera Mills declared a lock-out which continued for a month. In consequence a considerable amount of extra work fell on the police but there were no disturbances.

3. Communal relations deteriorated to a considerable extent. One serious disturbance occurred in Jubbulpore city during the Dasehra, after a period of peace which had lasted for ten years. There was serious tension in Saugor, Mandla, Nagpur and various places in the Hoshangabad, Bhandara, Akola and Amraoti districts. In several of these places there were minor clashes but police intervention averted serious developments.

4. Relations with the magistracy were excellent in all districts and the reports are unanimous in acknowledging the assistance given by the district magistrate and his assistants. In all districts, except in parts of Betul and Bilaspur, relations with the public were good. In the more developed parts of the province they are described as cordial.

5. Reporting of crime appears to be good. There is the usual mass of petty thefts which remained uninvestigated, but the power to refuse investigation has been exercised with discretion. Some district reports complain that many petty thefts were not reported, but the number of trivial thefts which came to notice seems to indicate that reports have been made even when complainants must have considered that their losses were trivial. Attention continues to be given to the practice of allowing kotwars to report petty crime at their periodical visits to the thanas.

PART II.—CRIME

SECTION I.—ANALYSIS OF OFFENCES UNDER THE VARIOUS CLASSES

6. The total number of offences registered under Classes I to V was 45,389. The table given below shows the figures under each class during the last three years :—

Class	Offence	1935	1936	1937	— or +
I	Offences against the State, public safety, etc.	616	704	638	—66
II	Serious offences against the person.	3,873	3,955	3,881	—74
III	Serious property offences ..	10,302	11,183	10,275	—908
IV	Minor offences against the person.	327	505	438	—67
V	Minor property offences ..	27,574	30,534	30,157	—377
	Total ..	42,692	46,881	45,389	—1,492

7. Class I.—Offences against the State, public tranquillity, safety and justice.—Escapes from lawful custody were 73 (143), of which 27 (35) were from police custody. No case was important and most of the absconders were recaptured.

8. The Dasehra communal disturbance in Jubbulpore resulted in a number of riots, in which 126 persons were injured, one fatally. Three cases were due to the belief in witchcraft. In Chhindwara a Gond lad ran away with an adult girl of the same caste from another village. This led to an attack by the Gonds of the girl's village on the other, during which one of the assailants was shot dead. There was a serious double riot in the Amraoti district arising from a dispute about the ownership of land. In the original riot one man was killed and another was killed in the counter-attack. In the Buldana district a serious riot occurred in a dispute between three widows over the division of their husband's estate. The widow primarily responsible for the riot was murdered a few days later. In a serious field riot in the Yeotmal district 4 persons were wounded by gun shots. A second field riot in the same district resulted in the murder of one person.

9. Class II.—Serious offences against the person.—Murders totalled 307 (341) with 138 (127) convictions, 67 (78) acquittals and 109 (121) cases pending at the end of the year.

10. A child, aged 7 years, was strangled by a Bania boy for the sake of ornaments valued at Rs. 11-8-0. The accused was hanged. A woman was sentenced to transportation for having strangled a child, aged 4, for the sake of ornaments worth Rs. 11-4-0. The latter case caused intense indignation in the village and the assistance given by the public had much to do with its detection.

11. In Saugor, 2 Gond servants killed the two young sons of their ex-master because of a dispute about pay.

12. In Mandla, a Gond, who had stolen three blankets from the local agent of a timber contractor, suggested to the agent that the thief might be discovered by means of magic. In the course of the magic ceremony the agent was bound and throttled. In the same district, a boy, aged 14, killed another boy with an axe in the course of a sudden petty quarrel.

13. In Hoshangabad, a household pujari hacked to death the house-owner, his wife and two children with a sword and decamped with cash and ornaments worth about Rs. 400. He has been convicted.

14. In Chhindwara, a case was promptly detected through intelligent action by a sub-inspector. A dead body had been found by the side of a cart track near a village. The sub-inspector inferred that the body had been brought in a cart in which there would probably be blood stains. He sent this information to neighbouring stations and one of the constables sent to watch the roads overtook the cartman, who had covered a distance of over 20 miles and would have left the main road within a short distance. The man's cart, clothes and axe were blood-stained. The accused was sentenced to death.

15. In Bilaspur, a Korba shot and killed with a bow and arrow a caste-fellow who had run away with his wife.

16. In Balaghat, a suspected sorcerer was killed by his own son and other villagers, and in Chanda, at the funeral of his mother, a man killed another, whom he suspected of having caused by magic the death of his father, wife and children within two years.

17. In Yeotmal, a Nath decoyed two persons to the jungle on the pretence of performing puja, drugged them with dhatura and robbed them while they were unconscious. One of the aggrieved died. A jury returned a verdict of not guilty under section 328, Indian Penal Code, but the judge, disagreeing with the jury, who also acted as assessors, convicted under section 302, Indian Penal Code.

18. One professional case of administering stupefying drugs has been referred to in the remarks on murders. The accused in that case committed one other offence in the Wardha district. In Nimar, some Sadhus were drugged with dhatura at Mandhata and robbed of Rs. 600. The accused has not been traced. There were no other cases of a professional nature.

19. A smart arrest by the Civil Lines police in Jubbulpore of a United Provinces Brahmin revealed the existence of an inter-provincial gang of traffickers in women. Enquiry by the Criminal Investigation Department traced some 40 women who had been abducted from the Central Provinces and the United Provinces and sold in the Punjab.

20. A number of cases concerned the enticing of children and the removal of their ornaments. Several persons were arrested who made a practice of this form of crime. In Chanda, a woman, who had given birth to a still-born child, stole another and said it was her own.

21. Assaults on government servants numbered 337 (294) of which 94 (102) were on police officers. None was of importance. A false charge of rape against a sub-inspector resulted in the successful prosecution of the complainant under section 211, Indian Penal Code.

22. In Mandla, a boatman was sentenced to six months' rigorous imprisonment under section 304-A, Indian Penal Code, for overloading his boat, which sank in the Nerbudda river and caused the death of 11 persons. Explosions while mixing chlorate of potash with arsenic sulphide for firing in "Gajkandis" were responsible for injuries to 7 persons, of whom 3 died in one case and one lost a leg in another.

23. Class III.—Serious offences against the person and property or against property only.—D a c o i t i e s numbered 33 (32) with 4 (10) convictions, 3 (2) acquittals and 17 (8) cases pending at the end of the year. In a number of the pending cases arrests have been made. As usual most of the cases, including nearly all those of a serious nature, were committed close to the borders of the province. An armed dacoity on a motor bus close to Jubbulpore was committed by five youths from the city, 4 of whom were convicted while one gave evidence as an approver. During the investigation the approver gave information of a semi-revolutionary gang of about 16 persons of Jubbulpore which was formed to commit dacoities, but investigation revealed little to support the story. In Saugor, 2 serious armed dacoities were committed in the same village, which borders on State territory. After persistent enquiry the gang was located and arrests have since been made in both cases. The leader, one Jawahir Singh, a dangerous absconding criminal, was wounded and captured in a fight with the Saugor police and two of his followers were killed. A heavy armed house dacoity of Damoh sub-division remained undetected. The village is an island of British territory, 8 miles from our border and surrounded by three of the Bundelkhand States, and a dacoity was committed on the complainant's house in 1915, while other dacoities occurred in the village in 1916 and 1919. State criminals are clearly responsible. An important armed house dacoity in the middle of the Amraoti district was traced to criminals from Bundelkhand after a long and difficult investigation. Several arrests have been made. A heavy house dacoity of Buldana was committed by criminals from the Hyderabad State. Those responsible for two small road dacoities are unknown while a road dacoity appears to have been committed by a gang from East Khandesh. The remaining cases were of no particular importance.

24. A gang of Orakzai sepoys was responsible for 4 robberies early in the year in the vicinity of Saugor. In one case they entered a house near the Cantonments and injured two women with swords. One of the accused was found selling part of the property at Pachmarhi and, with the help of the officers of the regiment, 3 of the cases were detected. A good enquiry led to the detection of a Hoshangabad case of Rs. 5,619 and the recovery of property amounting to Rs. 4,184. The two main accused were ex-constables of police, who were instigated by the complainant's nephew. A series of offences was committed in Akola by a gang of Chita Pardhis, of whom some were brought from the Undirgaon Criminal Tribes Settlement, Ahmednagar district, by caste-fellows resident in Akola. Little identifiable property was stolen and it was found impossible to obtain convictions in specific cases. Eight of the members of the gang were bound over under section 110, Criminal Procedure Code.

25. Burglaries decreased to 9,136 (10,041) with 1,573 (1,733) convictions. The value of property stolen was Rs. 4,44,383 (Rs. 4,55,669), of which 27.6 (31.6) per cent was recovered. The percentage of convictions to investigations was 18.6 (19.3). The decrease in reports was almost confined to Berar. Again Rai Bahadur Tarachand had remarkable success in dealing with the house-breakings of Nagpur city, having detected 63 out of 93 offences. 53 had been convicted before the end of the year. In addition, the property of 8 house-breakings of other districts was recovered while the accused were attempting to sell it in the city bazars. Many of the district reports mention good work in the discovery of gangs of burglars and a number of heavy cases were detected, but it still remains clear that house-breaking is our most serious problem, difficult to control and more difficult to detect. Attention continues to be focussed on persons with criminal records and suspicious strangers and good results have followed the judicious use of sections 109 and 110, Criminal Procedure Code.

26. Class V.—Minor offences against property.—Cattle thefts.—A few instances of systematic cattle theft on a small scale came to notice, but there is no reason to believe that organised cattle theft exists to any important extent in the province.

27. Ordinary thefts.—Ordinary thefts numbered 26,166 (26,528); 15,050 (15,270) were not investigated, being of a very petty nature. In the cities and larger towns thefts of bicycles have created quite a problem and all over the province there are considerable numbers of thefts of ornaments from the person. Both these kinds of offences are difficult to detect.

28. The reports include several cases of embezzlement against sub-postmasters, one against the treasurer of the Janjgir treasury and a number against patels, patwaris and kamdar mahars.

29. A Gond was convicted of cheating for disguising himself as a woman and going through a marriage ceremony with another Gond, from whom he obtained ornaments and expenses.

SECTION II.—PREVENTIVE ACTION

30. Excluding the action taken by the Railway Police, there were 620 (839) proceedings under section 109, Criminal Procedure Code, of which 86 (140) failed and 93 remained pending at the end of the year. The decrease was spread over the whole province and may be due, in part at least, to the action taken in the previous year.

31. Under section 110, Criminal Procedure Code, there were 419 (479) proceedings with 61 (74) failures. It may be claimed that this section has been used with discretion. A decided drop in house-breakings in Betul is clearly due to preventive action taken in 1936. Only one proceeding was sent up from Bilaspur and the district magistrate is of opinion that resumption of action under section 110, Criminal Procedure Code, is necessary.

32. Proceedings under section 107, Criminal Procedure Code, numbered 1,219 (1,158). Security was taken in 273 (310) and refused in 518 (459) cases. The figures of various districts vary within very wide limits. Buldana initiated proceedings in 173 cases, while security was taken in 26. Corresponding figures for Amraoti are 63 and 8, Akola 95 and 7, Yeotmal 65 and 7, Bhandara 152 and 10, and Jubbulpore 113 and 38, respectively, while Nimar took action in only 3 cases. It would seem that in most districts far more discrimination should be exercised, even though allowance is made for the fact that the initiation of proceedings may have prevented riots in certain cases.

33. Proceedings under section 145, Criminal Procedure Code, numbered 258 (286). Action should not be taken by the police under this section except when there is imminent danger of a breach of the peace. In such cases security under section 107, Criminal Procedure Code, should be demanded also.

SECTION III.—RAILWAY POLICE

34. The strike on the Bengal-Nagpur Railway, which lasted from the middle of December, 1936, till the middle of February, 1937, gave much extra work but had no appreciable effect on crime figures. Section 109,

Criminal Procedure Code, was used to excellent effect in dealing with suspicious strangers. There were four dacoities and four robbery cases, all committed by gangs from Gwalior and other states under the notorious Mangia, Mina, of Tonk State and Jawahir Singh of Bhilsa, Gwalior. Three of the dacoity cases and all four robberies were detected during the year with the assistance of state police.

35. There were no serious railway accidents.

SECTION IV.—CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION DEPARTMENT

36. Mr. Duke was in charge throughout the year.

37. The officers of the department investigated 27 cases, including 9 of the previous year. The cases included 7 murders, 3 dacoities, 1 of coining, 3 thefts, 8 of cheating, and one each of rioting, kidnapping, bribery, receiving stolen property and torture. Four remained undetected, 7 were made over to districts, 16 were prosecuted and 5 were pending at the end of the year. In court 8 ended in conviction, 2 in acquittal, 2 were dropped and 4 remained pending.

38. On 11 occasions officers were deputed on duty in connection with the tours of His Excellency the Viceroy and Provincial Governors.

39. The difficult Belgian Bond Cheating case of Chhindwara, which started in 1934, ended in the conviction of all five accused, with sentences ranging from 6 months to 4 years, with fines.

40. Serious frauds in the South Chanda forest division, involving some forest officers and contractors, were under investigation at the close of the year.

41. The coining case of Drug district of last year ended in the conviction of 9 accused and sentences ranging from 1 to 12 years. The accused were all Sikhs and much of the investigation had to be made in the Punjab.

42. Embezzlements in the Buldana municipality resulted in the convictions of the secretary and the accountant, with sentences of 7 and 5 years, respectively.

43. In the Barkhera conspiracy case the permanent way inspector, Zincke, and a time-keeper were sentenced to 3 and 2 years' rigorous imprisonment, respectively. Our finger print expert stood up to prolonged cross examination in court.

Finger Print Bureau.

44. The total number of slips on record rose to 39,520, an increase of 7,049 during the year. 1,473 slips were traced out of 10,230 received for search and prints were detected on 24 articles out of 69 sent for examination. Experts gave evidence in 24 cases.

Photographic Branch.

45. This branch had a busy year, having undertaken the teaching of photography to the advanced classes for sub-inspectors in addition to the ordinary work of photographing criminals, finger prints and dead bodies and making half tone blocks, as well as developing and printing work for the railway police.

PART III.—ADMINISTRATION

Motor Vehicles Department.

46. The total number of vehicles in the province rose from 6,256 to 6,644. The number of drivers' and conductors' licenses continues to rise steadily. Motor revenue of all kinds rose from Rs. 3,88,894 to Rs. 4,25,802.

47. The following table gives details of the accidents and prosecutions for the past three years :—

	1935	1936	1937
Accidents with deaths ..	66	66	68
Number of deaths ..	81	73	70
Accidents with hurt ..	463	560	457
Other accidents ..	336	355	401
Prosecutions for death or hurt under the Indian Penal Code.	126	139	123
Prosecutions for rash driving ..	38	57	91
Prosecutions under the Motor Vehicles Act ..	3,291	3,827	2,558

48. An analysis of the causes of the accidents is :—

	By private vehicles	By public vehicles
Rash driving ..	41	100
Negligence or carelessness by drivers ..	57	106
Faulty mechanism e.g., sudden failure of brakes, etc.	7	23
Negligence by drivers of carts and other vehicles ..	44	55
Negligence by pedestrians ..	44	41
Negligence by cattle owners in not controlling animals on roads.	26	76
Playing of children on roads ..	17	10
Miscellaneous ..	169	113
Total ..	405	524

49. A pair of portable wheel weighers was borrowed from the Great Indian Peninsula Railway and used for about three months to check lorries in Akola district on roads parallel to the railway. Many lorries were found with goods in excess of the prescribed weight limit and numerous prosecutions were initiated.

50. In Balaghat district manganese lorries did considerable damage to a road through travelling at excessive speed. Efforts are being made to protect the road by restricting speed, but it is doubtful whether our governors will allow laden lorries to climb the gradients, if the speed on level ground is reduced sufficiently to protect the road surface and culverts. In several districts a number of cases under section 283, Indian Penal Code, and the Police Act were instituted against negligent cart drivers. Generally speaking the control of motor traffic was fairly satisfactory, considering the narrowness of most of our roads and the types of vehicles which use them.

Training Institutions.

51. Mr. Tregenza continued in charge of the college throughout the year. Three out of four departmental candidates qualified in the final examinations and 32 posts were available for 51 provincial students. Posts were found in the jail and excise departments for some of the 12 students who qualified but failed to obtain appointments in the police and an experiment was made by appointing the remainder as head constables. If the experiment is a success, the practice will be continued in subsequent years.

52. A number of lectures on general subjects was given by gentlemen who visited the college from time to time and the amount of practical demonstration work was increased. The outstanding achievement in games was the recapture after 19 years of the Playfair hockey shield. A boat house was constructed and an electric clock installed in the fort as a memorial to deceased Inspector Bholanath Barat. The cost of the clock was met by a generous donation of Rs. 1,600 from Dr. Barat of Jubbulpore, in memory of his brother.

53. Constables' Schools.—Both schools did excellent work under their principals, Khan Sahib Muhammad Adil, Nagpur, and Rai Sahib Baijnath Kaula, Jubbulpore.

Every effort has been made to make the training as practical as possible. The Jubbulpore students were of valuable assistance to the city police during the Dasehra riots. The institutions were visited by a number of distinguished gentlemen from various parts of India and interesting lectures were delivered on a variety of subjects of general interest. The drill, discipline, games and physical exercises were of a high standard. The final results were satisfactory.

54. Mr. Smyth officiated as Inspector-General for six months. During the rest of the year Sir Charles Chitham held charge.

55. Recruitment was good but several district reports complain that better recruits would be available, if the temporary height standard of 5′—7″ for the northern and 5′—6″ for the southern districts were relaxed.

Casualties for the last four years were :—

Discipline.

56. During the year 7 (6) officers and 94 (97) men were dismissed and 76 (77) officers and 412 (496) men were punished departmentally, otherwise than by dismissal.

One constable was convicted under the Police Act and a sub-inspector for receiving stolen property.

Rewards.

57. The title of Khan Bahadur was conferred on Mr. Syed Zahir-ul-Hussain Rizvi, officiating District Superintendent of Police, Yeotmal, who unfortunately died suddenly on tour shortly after the announcement of the honour conferred on him. The title of Rai Sahib was conferred on Rama Prasad Banerjee, Prosecuting Inspector of Police. Indian Police Medals were awarded to Messrs. D. G. Watson and Khwaja Muhammad Akram Khan, District Superintendents, T. H. Horlock, Reserve Inspector, Ishtiaq Hussain and Jai Kishan Singh, Inspectors, and to two head constables and two constables.

58. In rewards Rs. 10,547 were paid by the police department and Rs. 7,481 by magistrates and other departments to members of the police force. Rs. 6,556 were paid by the police department to private persons.

Buildings.

59. During the year expenditure on new and incomplete Major Works totalled Rs. 1,67,120. The large building scheme in Nagpur was nearly completed and the new police lines in Raipur were finished and occupied. The new Raipur lines have modern sanitation and are easily the best in the province. The transfer from the old dusty site on the edge of the basti has been of great benefit to the men and, from the amounts already realized by the auction of part of the old lines and the estimated value of the remainder, it seems likely that the transfer will have been effected without cost to Government. Possibly there will be a profit.

60. In the current year, 1938, provision has been made to complete two Major works and commence one. There still remain on our programme Major Works administratively approved which will cost nearly 4½ lakhs.

61. I do not bring to the notice of Government the names of any particular officers. The general standard was good and all have contributed to it. I have noted the names of the various officers who have been commended in the district reports.

D. A. SMYTH,

NAGPUR: Inspector-General of Police,
The 19th May 1938. Central Provinces and Berar.
